THE PRITCHARDS and their NAME

7058559

The name of Pritchard or Prichard is said to have been of Welch origin and derived from ap Richard, meaning "Son of Richard". It is found on ancient records in the various form of Prichar, Prichert, Pritchard, and Prichard, of which the last two are the generally accepted forms of to-day.

The family of Pritchard is said to have been descended from an ancient Welch line which is given as beginning with Caradoc vraich Vras, Earl of Hereford and Prince between the Wye and Severn, in the early sixth century. He was the father of Cawrdaf, who had Caw, who was the father of Gloyw, who had Hoyw, who had Cynfardh, who had Cyndeg, who had Teithwalch, who had Tegid, who had Tangwod, who had Anarawd, who was the father of Gwendwyod, who had Gwengy, who had Hydd, Hwgan who had Dryffyn, Prince of Brecon in the tenth century.

Rys Goch ap Dryffyn, Lord of Ystradwy, was the father of Cyhllen Voel, who had Ryhs, who was the father of Cynhyllyn who had Cynfyn who had Arthur, who had Howell, who was the father of Griffith, Lord of Penhros Casthe, who was killed in 1282 and was succeeded by his oldest son David.

David ap Griffith was the father of Howell Gam, who had Howell Yeham, who married Jane, daughter of Sir John Norris and died about 1399, leaving one son Meuric, who was the father of Ievan, who had Howell, who married the daughter and heiress of the Lord of Llanover and had Jenkyn, who had Richard, Lord of Llanover and High Sheriff of Brecon in 1554.

William ap Richard (also called William Pritchard or Prichard) was the father by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Watkin ap Hugh, of at least four children Matthew, Charles, Valentine, and Anne. Of these children of William Pritchard. Matthew was High Sheriff of Monmouthshire in 1596 and left three sons, William, Jenkin or John, and Benjamin. The other sons, Charles, and Valentine, held the positions, respectively of Vicar of Llanover in 1583 and High Sheriff of Monmouthshire in 1609.

From this ancient Welch line were also descended the Prichards of London and Lancashire, and the Pritchards of Salop County, These families were for the most part of the Nobility and landed gentry of England and Wales. Of these later branches of the family one William Prichard was living in the parish of Preston, Lancaster County, in the early eighteenth century and believed to have also named William and one Sir William Prichard was Lord Mayor of London in the year 1705.

Probably the first member of the family to emigrate to America was Hugh Pritchard of Gloucester, Mass., in 1641, who removed at a slightly date to the town of Roxbury, in the same colony, and is said to have come from Wales. By his wife Elinor he had Abigail or Abiel, Zediah, Phoebe, and several others who died young.

One Roger Pritchard made his home at Springfield in 1643 and later moved to Milford. By his wife Frances, who died in 1651, he is believed to have had Alice and Joan. In 1655 he married a second wife the widow Elizabeth (nee Prudden) Slough and probably had further issue.

Another emigrant of the year 1643 was Richard Pritchard of Yarmouth, who brought with him his wife Ann and Daughter Templer. He made his home at Cherlestown about 1660 and died in 1669, leaving a widow named Margery and daughter named Hannah.

William Pritchard of Lynn, Mass. in 1645 removed to Ipswich in 1648 and :o Brookfield at a slightly later date. His children are believed to have been William, John, Joseph, Elizabeth, and Samuel, and probably several others who lied young.

About 1647 one John Pritchard emigrated to Dorchester County, Md., and s said to have had at least one son named John and probably others.

Another William Prichard or Pritchard resided in Maryland as early as 1658 s said to have left a large family, although, the names of his immediate family ure not known.

Obediah Prichard of Maryland had issue by his wife Margaret, whom he narried about 1699, of Samuel, Obediah, and James.

Griffith Pritchard and his wife Mary came from Wales to Pennsylvania ibout the year 1700 and were the parents of, among others, a son named Anthony, rom whom were descended the Ohio Pri(t)chards.

Two brothers, William and John Prichard, are said to have been kidnapped ınd brought to Virginia from Wales about 1740. William is said to have married Dorcas Glover, daughter of Colonel John Glover, and to have had issue by her of John, James, Lewis and Elizabeth. He removed in the latter part of his life :o Kentucky. It is possible that the John Pritchard, who was living in Virginia prior to the Revolutionary War and was the father of three sons of whom was named William was the same as the John above mentioned as brother of the emigrant William, but this is not certain.

About 1750 one Jesse Pritchard or Prichard came from Wales to Maryland with his family, consisting of his wife (who died on the voyage) and his children, William, Jesse, Rebecca, and John.

The descendents of these various branches of the family in America have spread to practically every state of the union and have aided as much in the growth of the country as their ancestors aided in the founding of the nation. They have been noted for their courage, energy, ambition, industry, moral and physical strength, integrity, piety, initiative, resourcefulness, perseverance and fortitude.

Among these of the name who fought as officers in the war of the Revolution were Lieutenant Jeremiah Pritchard of New Hampshire, Ensign Rees Pritchard of Virginia, and Captain Thomas Pritchard of Mass.

William, John, Richard, Thomas, Howell, Benjamin, Joseph, Obediah, James, and Samuel, are some of the Christian names most highly favored by the family for its male members.

Two of the many members of the family who have distinguished themselves in various parts of the world in more recent times were James Cowles Prichard, English ethoologist and physician, living from 1786 to 1849 and Jeter Connely Pritchard, American jurist, living from 1857 to 1921.

One of the most ancient and frequently recurrent of the several coats of-arms of the family of Prichards or Pritchards is described as follows—
ARM—"Ermine, a lion rampant sable (sometimes with a border Azure)."
CREST—"A lion rampant as in the arms" or "A dexter arm proper, holding a battle-axe, handle gules." or "A horse's head ermine, erased gules."
(Arms taken from Burke's General Armory" 1884)
